

CURRICULUM VITAE

Family name: Deza

First name: Michel Marie

Nationality: french

Date of birth: 27 April 1939

Title of last position: Research Director at CNRS, Paris; retired 1/9/2005 by age limit;

2009-2010: Research professor at JAIST, Ishikawa, Japan

2013: Visiting professor at HUST, Hong Kong, China

2014-2015: Visiting professor at IMECC-UNICAMP, Campinas, Brazil

Graduated from: Moscow University, 1961

Degrees: eqv. PhD in Academy of Sciences of USSR, Moscow, 1965, and Doctorat d'Etat in Université Paris-VI, 1973

Work history:

1961-1972: Research Assistant, then from 1966, Senior Researcher in Academy of Sciences of USSR, Moscow

1973-2005 : Researcher, then from 1985, Research Director at CNRS (Centre National de la Recherche Scientifique), Paris

270 research papers

Books of last years:

1. "Geometry of Cuts and Metrics", Springer, 1997; paperback, 2010; russian translation, Moscow, 2001
2. "Scale-Isometric Polytopal Graphs in Hypercubes and Cubical Lattices", Imperial College Press, 2004; russian translation, Moscow, 2007
3. "Dictionary of Distances", Elsevier, 2006; russian translation, Moscow, 2007
4. "Geometry of Chemical Graphs: Polycycles and Two-face Maps", Cambridge University Press, 2008; russian translation, Moscow, 2013
5. "Encyclopedia of Distances", Springer-Verlag, 2009; 2nd edition in 2012, 3rd edition in 2014.
6. "Figurate Numbers", World Scientific, 2011; russian translation, Moscow, 2014

Editing: 1980-2009, the Editor-in-Chief of "European Journal of Combinatorics".

Currently, an Editorial Board member for 15 international mathematical journals; also edited about dozen of Special Issues of other journals and books.

Founding Fellow of Institute of Combinatorics and its Applications.

Member of European Academy of Sciences; its Vice President 2008-2010,

Member of International Academy of Mathematical Chemistry

See details: <http://www.liga.ens.fr/~deza> and http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Michel_Deza